

21st CENTURY PSALMS

WITH DR. ESTHER MENN

Professor, Author & Lecturer

Lutheran School of Theology
at Chicago

Dr. Menn will tell us about some of the authors of the Psalms in Biblical history, what motivated them to create the Psalms they used to approach God, and then use psalms that we might write in our attempt to approach God today.

THREE CONSECUTIVE SATURDAYS: Sept. 22nd

Sept. 29th

10:30 – 11:30 am

Oct. 6th

This series will be presented at St. John's Lutheran Church, 1235 Wilmette Ave., Wilmette, in their new parish hall. Following the presentations and discussion, those choosing to share a meal together, may either bring a bag lunch or purchase one from a local restaurant. Further information will follow, or may be obtained from Peter Knobel, through the church office @ 847-251-1730.

It has been noted that Dr. Menn has a long-time interest in the figure of King David in early Christian and Jewish Psalms interpretation.

At LSTC, she teaches courses in Old Testament, chairs the Bible division and organizes events and conferences in Jewish-Christian relations.
